Letter to Dead Woman Suggested
Divorce Before Wedding Matrimonial Agency Fiancée.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., October 3.—James Allen, sixty-four years of age, who says he is from Ashland, Ohio, is held by Kent county authorities, pending completion of an investigation of the death of Mrs. Anna St. John of Mayfield, N. Y., whose bullet-pierced body was found in a field near Grand Rapids last Sunday. County records show that Allen and Mrs. St. John were married here September 19. Officers allege that Allen—who, they claim, told them he also used the name James Alerton and John Williams—purchased a revolver in Grand Rapids some time ago and that he signed the name "Alerton" to the blank. He also registered at a local hotel as "Alerton," it is claimed.

Daughter Urges Divorce.

Allen's baggage was seized this forenoon. One letter which officers found in it was to Mrs. St. John from a daughter at Elmira, N. Y. It was written from 212½ South Main street and cautioned Mrs. St. John to obtain a divorce from her husband before she married Allen. It is claimed that Allen and Mrs. St. John became acquainted through correspondence of a matrimonial agency.

Until late yesterday the sheriff's force worked upon the theory that the dead woman was Mrs. Adelle M. Kimball of Chicago. Mrs. Kimball's daughter told officers she believed the description of the victim was similar to that of her mother. Mrs. Kimball was located later.

Woman's Curiosity Gives Clue.

Identification was made through letters found in a valise in the room at a hotel where the woman stayed prior to her disappearance, several days ago. The identification was confirmed by the proprietor of the hotel, who also declared that Allen left the hotel at the same time Mrs. St. John departed. Allen was taken into custody following a story which the police say was told them by Mrs. Adelle M. Kimball, wife of a local grocer. Allen, the police say, told them, left a bundle in her store a few days ago, stating he would call for it later. Her curiosity, she declared, impelled her to open the bundle. In it she said she found a new revolver and letters belonging to Mrs. St. John.

OF INFANTILE PARALYSIS

Medical Inspector in Contagious Disease Service of D. C. in Serious Condition.

Dr. Arthur L. Hunt, medical inspector in the contagious disease service of the health department, was reported yesterday to be suffering from infantile paralysis. His condition this afternoon was said to be serious. Health officials are at a loss to understand how Dr. Hunt contracted the disease, as his last visit to an infantile paralysis patient was in July.

When the danger of an epidemic of the malady was seriously threatening Washington, Dr. Hunt was assigned yesterday to keep under observation persons coming to this city from communities where infantile paralysis had prevailed. His work was arduous and the manner in which he performed it elicited commendation from the officials of the health department.

Dr. Hunt has been engaged in the practice of medicine in the District for several years and for the last seven years has done considerable work for the health department. He is regarded as an expert in the administration of anesthetics.

Health Officer William C. Woodward, Dr. Hunt's head of the contagious disease service, and officials and employees of the health office generally united in expressions of regret today over Dr. Hunt falling a victim to the disease, which he valiantly combated during the summer in the interest of the health of the people of Washington.

After the shell lighter belonging to Herbert Bryant's Son, at Alexandria, which sank at Alexandria Saturday, loaded with oyster shells from the port of Bolivar, was raised, it will be taken to an Alexandria shipyard for repairs.
